CITY AND DISTRICT.

THE EVENING STAR is everywhere recognized and admitted to be, in every quality, the eading and favorite newspaper of the National Capital, alike in the counting-room, the workshop, and the family circle. Pretty much everybody in the District reads it regularly. It is therefore much the best advertising medium in the city; and, in proportion to circulation its advertising rates are also much the cheapest.

THE HOLIDAY TRADE. Attractions in the Stores-Suggestions for Shoppers.

What to buy for Christmas and where to go are questions about which thousands of readers of THE STAR would like to receive suggestions. The great palaces of trade, as well as the smaller stores, are in holiday dress, and the thronging crowds give a gala appearance to the streets. The enterprising merchants of Washington have made ample preparations to meet the demands of the Christmas trade. There is no novelty that may not be found in the city stores, and the variety is only limited by the products of the markets of the world. The advertising columns of THE STAR afford The advertising columns of The Star afford Gov. Ames made the initial speech and in due a guide to intending purchasers by means of time ex-President Cleveland was introduced. which they can inform themselves at home at their leisure of the wares each merchant has to so will it be with ballot reform, except that the offer. With the aid of this guide they can lay out their shopping tour in advance and save much time. To further assist its readers in de-termining the questions of the hour The STAR will publish from day to day notices of mercantile establishments where customers can be sure of finding goods of fine quality.

THE FAMILY SHOES STORE, 310 7th street northwest, has an excellent line of goods, and is also offering especially good bargains for the holiday season. Shoes of all qualities and prices may be had there, but all are good. There is a full assortment of fancy slippers suitable for holiday gifts, and a pair of ladies' fur-trimmed would make a handsome present.

The business done at KING's PALACE has been so heavy of late that it has necessitated a large addition to the store. The building next door has been leased and the two will soon be thrown into one. In the meantime it is necessary to sell out the large stock of goods on hand, and splendid bargains may now be had in all lines of holiday goods. The entire line of seal-plush jackets is selling at about half the former price and all other goods in proportion.

JUSTA'S old stand, 619 D street northwest, is the place to buy or sell ladies' second-hand dresses, and in fact clothing of all descriptions. Second-hand goods of all sorts may be had To lovers of a cup of good coffee the Johnston dry roast Java offers a real treat. It has become so popular that it may be had of almost every grocer, and is always in great demand. The Johnston tea is also a great favorite with every one. Flowers are in such demand during the holione of the best-known dealers in fur goods in question of his own asking-what to do with the country. Furs, seal jackets, wraps, shoulder capes, muffs, rugs and robes may always be found there in all styles. This week he has opened a parlor at the Arlington, where he has a large line of goods on exhibition.

There is a splendid collection of water colors, artist proof etchings, engravings and photographs at the art rooms of Bolitha J. Laws, 1427 Pennsylvania avenue. They make handsome gifts for the holidays.

JOHN R. KELLY's stand in the ninth street

A seal skin sacque makes a particularly handsome Christmas present and this year shoulder of deeds and a frequenter of the Fairmount capes in astrakhan, mink, Persian beaver, monkey and nutria furs are all the rage. WILLETT & RUOFF, 905 Pennsylvania avenue, make a specialty of furs and wraps and fur trimmings. and they have also a full supply of plush goods

To any one looking for novel and handsome Christmas gifts nothing is more satisfactory than a large assortment of fine jewelry and silverware. HARRIS & SHAPER, 1113 Pennsylvania avenue, have a splendid stock this year from which to choose, and their line of jewelry, watches, clocks and silverware of all decreases. scriptions has never been so complete as it is

The Concord harness is as good an article as can be had in its line. It is serviceable as well as handsome. Lutz & Bro., 497 Pennsylvania avenue, has already a large stock of this and other makes of harness. They are selling horse blankets and lap robes at a very low figure.

WILMARTH & EDMONSTON, 1205 Pennsylvania avenue, carry a full line of Christmas goods. They have recently received a large importa-tion of Belleeck ware from the factory in Ire-land. They have also a large assortment of Doulton ware in dishes, cups and saucers, as well as other china goods of all descriptions.

CARTERS cash store, 711 Market Space, is off ring great bargains in all their goods suitable for Christmas presents. Ladies' cloth dress goods, silks, surahs, broadcloths and serges are all regarded as specially suited to the holiday season, and prices are made accordingly. They are giving away handsome presents with all sales of $5 or more.

FRANC, the one-price merchant, at the corner of 7th and D streets, has an excellent assortment of neckwear, suitable for the holiday season. The ties he sells for 50 cents are very cheap for the money. Nothing makes a more serviceable holiday gift for a man or boy than a good overcoat or uit of clothes, and whether he is large or small and his tastes moderate or extreme, it is always possible to please him at Eiseman's, corner 7th and E streets.

Seal skin jackets, sacques and ulsters, shoulder capes in all varieties of fur, plush wraps, muffs, boas, stoles and carriage robes are some of the articles suitable for Christmas presents which are to be had at B. H. STINEMETZ & Sons, 1327 Pennsylvania avenue. Their stock is complete and their prices always reliable. The good house keeper wants her carpets clean, and when she has them cleaned she wants it well done. THE EMPIRE CARPET CLEANgood place to have all such work done. Good clothing is a good thing at any season of the year, but a handsome suit of clothes or an overcoat does make a first-rate holiday gift.

It would seem almost unnecessary for any man to be shabbily dressed when proper garments can be had at such reasonable figures as are offered at Victor E. Adler's Ten Per CENT CLOTHING HOUSE, 927-929 7th street northwest, corner Massachusetts avenue. ALEX. MILNE, 1214 F street northwest, has a splendid display of holiday goods, and every-thing in the way of house furnishing goods may be had there in styles to suit every taste

A sewing machine is an acceptable present to any housewife, and 437 9th street is the agency for the Wheeler and Wilson Company.
The Wheeler and Wilson machine is known wherever sewing has obtained a footing. They are simple, swift and silent. Many people don't use wine on their tables even at Christmas time, and it will interest such to know that the Manitou mineral water company has an agency at 737 7th street, where this refreshing water can be obtained in any quantities. CHARLES KRAEMER is the agent and he has also on hand a large stock of ginger

The establishment at 408 7th street, run by H. HOLLANDER, is one of the places where Christmas goods are made a specialty. This week especially do they offer some great bargains in dinner sets, globes, vases, toilet sets, knives, spoons, &c., and thousands of other articles too numerous to mention, but all suitangures.

So many Christmas shoppers have year after year headed directly for 719 Market Space and always come away satisfied that it is almost useless saying anything of E. G. Davis and his store. The old customers will go again and to the new ones it may be said that Mr. Davis will be thoroughly up with the demands. Trim-mings, lace handkerchiefs, ribbons, furs, jew-elry, fancy goods and leather goods will be found in such profusion and mixed with so many other objects of use and ornament that the unexperienced will be bewildered.

THAT DINNER AT THE HUB. Speeches by Mr. Cleveland, Henry W.

Grady andAndrew Carnegie. The Boston merchants' dinner at the Hotel Vendome last night was a solidly substantial affair socially as well as gastronomically. The special guests of the evening were ex-President Cleveland, Andrew Carnegie, Henry W. Grady and Hon. W. L. Putnam of Maine. Over 400 business men of Boston and New England sat down with them. The hall was elaborately and elegantly decorated with banners and flowers. At the round table in the center sat Jonathan A. Lane, president of the association. At his right were ex-President Cleveland, H. W. Grady, W. L. Putnam, P. A. Collins, John Lowell, William E. Russell and Leopold Morse, while at his left were seated Gov. Oliver Ames, Andrew Carnegie, Gen. Clinton B. Fiske of New Jersey Homer Rogers, president of the Boston board of aldermen; Francis Lynde Stetson of New York and Collector Saltonstall, all guest of the association. The guests at the other tables in-cluded Edward Atkinson, Congressman Ranney, Josiah Quincy, Alden Speare, president of the Boston chamber of commerce, Charles S Smith, president of the New York chamber of commerce and Assistant United States Treasurer S. N. Aldrich.

James Russell Lowell sent a letter of regret. coming victory will be more speedily achieved and will be more complete."

GRADY DEFENDS THE SOUTH. The greeting given to Henry W. Grady was no less enthusiastic than that extended to the ex-President. Mr. Grady said that this year the south raised 7,500,000 bales of cotton, which enormous crop could not have come from the enormous crop could not have come from the hands of discontented labor. The negroes of Georgia who, twenty-five years ago, were slaves, now possess $20,000,000 of property. Since 1865 the south has spent $122,000,000 in education and this year is pledged to $37,000,000 more, although the blacks, paying 1.30 of the taxes, get nearly one-half the fund. In the south are negret lawyers teachers editors does south are negro lawyers, teachers, editors, doctors and preachers multiplying with the increasing ability of their race to support them.

The speaker believed the race problem would be solved by the people most bound in honor to its solution. He asked of his hearers: "First, patience; out of this alone can come perfect work; "second, confidence; in this alone can you judge fairly; "third, sympathy; in this you can help us best. Fourth, give us your sons as hostages, that they may help to swell the Anglo-Saxon current until it can carry without danger this black infusion. Fifth, loyalty to the republic for these is catheralized. alty to the republic, for there is sectionalism in loyalty as in estrangement. Give us the broad and perfect loyalty that loves and trusts Georgia alike with Massachusetts; that knows no south, no north, no east, no west, but endears with equal and patriotic love every foot of our soil, every state of our Union." A. JAECKEL, 11 east 19th street, New York, is ex-Presidents. He had shown that one good thing to do with them was to invite them to all banquets, and in this connection the question occurred to him-why not run them again? To this there was a storm of applause with cries of "Good," "That's so," and renewed cheering. Mr. Carnegie was followed by Hon. W. L. Putnam, late democratic candidate for governor of Maine, who spoke briefly on "Merchant marine and fisheries."

Reputed to be worth at least $500,000, with a wide acquaintance in all walks of life, Mr. Ditman went out to drive alone, and after having talked with a park guard near the falls bridge in Fairmount park the horse and wagon were discovered on the west side of the river by a guard on the east side within ten minutes without a driver. The latter whistled to notify his west park comrade and the vehicle was captured. That was the last heard of Mr. Ditman. The river has been dragged ineffectually, the police have scoured the city and friends have done their best to find the man and his disappearance remains a mystery. All sorts of theories are advanced to account for the affair. His brother-in-law, W. O. Cline, a wealthy Philadelphian, said yesterday "Mr. Ditman was troubled with an affection of the heart, and while the horse was afraid of nothing, he was a very fast goer and a hard puller. We have thought that the exertion of holding the beast in may have been too much for him, and that he fell dead across the dash-board. In falling he might have pulled on the reins and drawn the horse into the tow path and then he could easily have been jolted out into the river."

Less House-Cleaning

Less Annoyance

More Health

More Comford

Such is the experience of women who use Pearline for housecleaning, and the degree of health and comfort is largely due to the way they use it. Directions for saving labor on every package. Delicate women can clean house by its aid; children will be a help, and husbands will never know the work is going on—out of the "ay, and they will be ignorant of it. It is bosh to say that Pearline hurts the clothing, the paint or the hands. Numbers of people clean their teeth with it; many babes have been washed with it from their birth; the most delicate of laces and linens have been subjected to the severest of tests. Everything washable, and everybody who must do this work, is benefitted by reason of the use of Pyle's Pearline. It's the modern soap. You'll know it and use it sooner or later. Your grocer keeps the goods. Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline."

IT'S FALSE—they are not, and besides are dangerous.
